CAMP DIRECTOR

Duane Bastress just finished his fifth season at the helm of the Spartan program after being a long time assistant under Hall of Fame coach Tom Kessler.

Bastress, who was a two-time national champion under Kessler, served the previous six seasons as a Spartan assistant coach before ascending to the program's top spot in the summer of 2013. Bastress won a pair of Division III National Championships in the Green and White, winning the tournament in 2005 and 2006. Bastress completed his senior year 40-0 and his three years at York College with a mark of 97-6. Including his one year stint at Bloomsburg, Bastress compiled a collegiate record of 114-21. He also ended his career with a 65-match winning streak.

Bastress has coached four NCAA All-Americans, 12 NCAA Division III national qualifiers, and 12 NWCA Scholar-All Americans during his tenure at York. Junior Greg Warner finished second at 149 pounds as he is now a three-time NCAA All-American.
