

Stand #withMalala
Workshop for girls in 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th grades

Saturday, March 16, 2019

9:00 am-11:00 am

Hanover Middle School

Cost: $14 (includes snack, t shirt and donation to the Malala fund)

Malala Yousafzai is a young lady who is an advocate of education in Pakistan. The Taliban has tried to stop girls from going to school.

Workshop participants will enjoy presentations and hands on activities (games, drumming, stories and more) with

Mrs. Joanne Hahn, Mrs. Kate Walton, Mrs. Erin Smith, and high school students. Participants will receive a t shirt and snack. Money will be donated to the Malala fund.

For more information about Malala, please go to www.malala.org
Return this form and money ($14 made payable to PASTA) to Ms. Emily Crouse at Hanover High School by March 8.

Student Name: _____

Student Address: _____

Phone Number: _____

Parent email address: _____

For more information, please email Mrs. Deb Smith at drsmith@hanoverpublic.org or
Ms. Emily Crouse at eac200@hanoverpublic.org

Please circle your t shirt size (adult sizes):

S M L XL

Send to:
Hanover High School (Deb Smith)
401 Moul Ave.
Hanover, PA 17331