The consignment split is 55% to the consignee and 45% to the YWCA. The YWCA portion of the sale is considered a charitable contribution. You will receive a receipt for this amount with your consignment check. Items may be donated to the YWCA. Donated items must be clearly marked. Off-season items are considered YWCA donations.

Do I price my own items?

No. YWCA volunteers will do all of the tagging and pricing for you.

Can I drop off my items at any time prior to the sale date?

No. Consignment and donation items are posted on the front of this flyer. Items will not be accepted outside of the posted hours. These hours will be strictly enforced to allow adequate time for tagging and preparation of sale.

What can I do if I don't want my things to be sold for half-price or donated to the Bag Sale?

You may pick up your items between 5 and 6 p.m. on Friday. The YWCA is not responsible for putting your items aside.

Do I have to consign in order to volunteer and shop at the Pre-Sale on Thursday?

No. You may volunteer without consigning. Volunteers who contribute five hours of their time or more by sorting, tagging, hanging, etc., will be eligible to shop the Pre-Sale.

Can consignees shop the Pre-Sale without volunteering?

No. Only volunteers who have worked five hours or more are entitled to Pre-Sale shopping.
